

I am very concerned about the consolidation of media and the effect that will have on the information and news i am able to recieve independant of mainstream corporations. I am concerned when in most markets 50% or more of all radio stations are owned by four major companies.